Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retro-version or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native, medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

MINISTERS' SOCIALISTIC CONFERENCE.

The Ministers' Socialist Conference, a new and secret body of socialists, which, unlike the Christian Socialist Fellowship, does not admit laymen to membership, has been formed in New York. It has been decided to hold a convention from June 1 to June 3 to form a national body of clergymen socialists. The organization has now a membership of two hundred. A full declaration of principles will be issued in a few days.

Secretary De Long, in a description of the aims of the Socialist Conference, of which ministers of all Christian denominations who believe in socialism are eligible for membership, says: "The clergymen who have affiliated with the new organization have come to the conclusion that Christianity will not work under a competitive commercial system, and that the introduction of socialism is necessary for all civilized human beings. We regard socialism as the economic expression of the Christian life, and believe that it is now the duty of the Church to step in and advocate Christian socialism in the United States. H. H. Rogers, in a recent magazine article, said that business was war; and if business is war, and if as another man said, war is hell, then business and the competitive system must also be hell. Several of the trustees of the largest corporations are also behind the new movement, but their relations to us are of the most confidential nature, and they have enjoined us from mentioning their names."

DIDN'T LIKE HIS FACE.

Just because her first husband's baby did not like her second's husband's face and cried all the time he was in sight, Mrs. Etta Fries, of Stonetown, N. J., has filed a suit in the divorce court. In her maidenhood, Mrs. Fries was the prize beauty of the Wynockie Hills, and Caleb Bender and Hamilton Fries were rivals for her hand. Caleb drew the prize, but did not live long to enjoy the happiness. When he died the Bender baby was less than a year old. In Chapter 2, Hamilton Fries, the rejected suitor, reappeared. He made love to the widow, and was accepted. But he failed to reckon with the Bender baby. From the moment Hamilton assumed his role of stepfather to the infant it conceived a violent dislike to him. At night the baby woke up and, recalling its stepfather's face, would cry. At meal time, when Fries sat down at table, the baby cried so loudly that he was forced to leave the room until after the infant had been fed. "Ham," said his wife to him one day' "the fact is the baby just can't endure your face." "I'm sorry," said "Ham," "but I am not responsible for this face. Hereafter it's me or the kid. Take your choice." Mrs. Fries chose the baby.

SHOT AT STUFFED BIRDS.

A hunter in the Edenwald woods, in the northern part of New York, a few days ago aimed at some birds in Mrs. Mary Sassen's hat, but missed and sent a load of shot into the woman's breast. Mrs. Sassen entered the woods early in the afternoon to pick flowers. She wore a rather squat, brown hat, trimmed with two brown birds and some foliage. In the woods, which are not thickly grown, the hat looked for all the world like a big nest of birds. The woman was bending over and placing flowers in a basket, when a loud shot rang out. Birdshot rattled through the underbrush and a large lot of it struck Mrs. Sassen full in the breast. More than 100 leaden pellets were extracted. None of them penetrated deeper than the skin, and Mrs. Sassen's injuries are not serious.

LILIES ON BISHOP'S GRAVE.

Friends of the late Bishop Satterlee, of Washington, are talking with awe and wonderment of the fact that close to the grave of the bishop, who died recently, there have blossomed lilies like those Christ referred to, and that an offshoot of the celebrated Glastonbury thorn of English legend and tradition also is about to blossom in the same vicinity. Years ago Bishop Satterlee received the lilies from Palestine and planted them in the grounds of the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul in Washington, but they never blossomed until this spring, since the bishop's death. So with the thorn tree, a shoot of which was sent him some years ago from England.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I brought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniament. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

TO AVOID SACRILEGE.

As a result of the sacrilege in the Sistine Chapel on Easter Sunday, when Professor Fielbogen, his wife and sister-in-law, after partaking of communion from the hands of the pope, spat out the Host, has resulted in orders being issued by Mgr. Bisleti, majordomo, that in future not only will papal audiences be restricted, but only Catholics will be admitted to hear the pope's mass. This is a return to Pope Leo's custom for the abolition of which the modernists blame Pope Pius X, complaining that the privilege was recently extended to all classes, whether laborers or distinguished Catholics or Protestants from abroad.

The Eighth District Committee.

At a meeting of the Congressional State Democratic Committee, for the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, held at the Prince William Hotel, in the town of Manassas, Virginia, on the 9th day of March, 1908, pursuant to a call issued by the chairman, the Hon. George S. Shackelford, there were present, the chairman, Col. Grenville Gaines; R. T. Green, Gardner L. Boothe and Thos. H. Lion. The following resolutions was adopted:

Be it resolved by the Congressional Democratic Committee for the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, that a primary election, for the democratic candidate for the United States House of Representatives, be held throughout said District on the 9th day of June, 1908, between sunrise and sunset of that day, at all established precincts or war'ds, and as near as possible in the usual voting places therein; be it further,

Resolved, that at said election all known white democrats and those who have never before voted, who shall declare themselves to be democrats, shall be allowed to vote, provided they will be qualified to vote at the next general election in November, 1908; be it further,

Resolved, that all candidates shall file a notice, in writing, of their candidacy, with Hon. George S. Shackelford, of Orange, Virginia, on or before April 4th,, 1908; be it further,

Resolved, that each candidate shall pay to the said Hon. George S. Shackelford, on or before the 15th day of April, 1908, his pro rata share of $1,500, that being the estimate of total expenses of conducting the said primary election; be it further,

Resolved, that any sum remaining after the expenses of said election are paid, shall be returned pro rata to the various candidates; be it further,

Resolved, that this election shall be separate and independent and not held in connection with any other primary.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, APR. 27, 1908

RICH FOOD for thought has been furnished by Mr. Thomas Fortune Ryan, the many-millioned captain of industry, during the week past. All because the special grand jury at New York, which had investigated the charges of minority stockholders against the management of the Metropolitan Street Railway, made public the text of the testimony sworn to by Mr. Ryan, the reputed ruler of the city's entire traction system (and various other systems). That Mr. Ryan was not indicted for his part in the manipulation and looting of "Met" was blamed by the jury upon the prevailing laws, and the severest censure was expressed in the presentment. The evidence of Messrs. Ryan, Vreeland and others placed most of the responsibility for the diversion of funds to political purposes and to placate officials upon the name of a once noted leader of the democracy, now dead, William C. Whitney. The testimony was so voluminous that it could not all be handled by the press in one day, and so for several days the public has been regaled with successive chapters, each more astounding than the previous ones. It was shown how large sums of money had been handed out to the managers of both parties, and was made plain that at least a part of the $500,000 proceeds of the purchase of the franchise of a paper railway was used to prevent the nomination of Bryan at Kansas City. In defending the financiering of the company Mr. Ryan said that "95 per cent. of the stock of American railroads is water," whereas the Metropolitan had over 83 per cent. of its stock paid in. It also turns out that Mr. Ryan admitted to having acquired half of the Ferries road franchise, owned by Brady. This would indicate that Mr. Ryan profited not only by the sale of the road to the Metropolitan, of which he was an officer, but that he sold to it his share of the fiction, thus profiting from two sources. All of the charges made by the stockholders are dismissed upon legal technicalities. The grand jury, however, declares that the disbursements shown to have been made were "deserving of severe condemnation."

THE tide of negro leaders, it is said, has set again toward the White House. Such visits ceased altogether after the Brownsville affair, and it looked as though Secretary Taft would have to get along without a large part of the negro vote. Then, it is believed at the president's investigation, Booker Washington, W. T. Vernon, register of the treasury; Charles Anderson, negro collector of internal revenue in the city of New York; Bishop Derrick, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, New York—all these and others went to work among their people. Vernon did such effective work in his State, Kansas, that he was elected delegate-at-large. Anderson reports Taft sentiment growing in the north. Bishop Derrick says that the negroes will be for the republican nominee, no matter whom. These and other leaders have been bringing delegations of negroes to the White House from all over the country. The president is now satisfied that the negro vote will be as solid for Taft as it always has been for the republican nominee. Ex-Governor Pinchback, of Louisiana, a negro, several months ago joined with ex-Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, in appealing to the negroes of the South to rise and smite Taft and anybody else smiled upon by the president. Now he has joined the Taft forces and will be put to work aiding Vernon and Washington. The president is a smooth politician and knows the negroes well, and knows that if let alone, like little Bo Peep's sheep, they will all come home to the republican party wagging their tails behind them.

AN INTERESTING prospect of lively scrapping between the rival candidates for the republican presidential nomination has been opened up by the charge now made by spokesmen of the "allies" that Secretary Taft is the Wall street candidate and is being actively backed by the great interests to which Roosevelt and the Roosevelt policies were supposed to be so obnoxious. It is charged that the delegates so far secured for Taft in the middle west and west were procured by the false pretenses that the war secretary stood with Roosevelt in stern hostility to Wall street and all that Wall street represented, whereas the fact was that Taft has all along been secretly favored by those interests, which have now thrown off the mask and come out openly for him.

IF THE assertions of the political managers may be credited, the two presidential candidates for the presidency this year are as good as chosen by the republican and democratic parties; namely, Taft by the former and Bryan by the latter. Up to the close of last week the Taft managers had counted 500 delegates to the national convention pledged to their man, and 491 is a majority. This estimate did not include any southern State where there is a contest. The Bryan bureau at Lincoln asserted that three-fourths of the democratic delegates were on record for their man.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.

Favorable reports were today authorized by the Senate judicary committee on the nomination of Guy Murchie, to be United States Marshall for Massachussetts. Murchie was a Rough Rider. The two Massachussetts senators had recommended another man for this place but when the President made a personal request that they should support Murchie they interposed no objection to favorable action by the committee. The nomination of Milton Dwight Purdy, the chief "trust buster" of the Department of Justice, to be district Judge in Minnesota, to which Senator Nelson, of the State, has declared unalterable opposition, was referred to a sub-committee consisting of Senators Nelson, Depew and Overman. This probably means that no action will be taken upon it at this session.

The State of Mississippi has asked the national government and the American Red Cross society for aid to relieve the victims of the recent wind storms. A telegram was received by the president today from Governor Noel, of Mississippi, stating that the stricken communities were in bad need of physicians, surgeons, nurses and supplies. Thousands have been rendered homeless, hundreds of whom are in need of immediate attention, and large numbers of these are destitute. The message was referred to the war and navy departments, with instructions from the president that such steps as may be found necessary upon further advices, be taken to render aid. The message was also referred to Charles F. Magee, secretary of the American Red Cross Society, who promptly instructed the officials of the Mississippi branch of the Red Cross to render immediate assistance.

Land under low tide, between the middle of New York bay and the low-water line on the New Jersey shore, is within the jurisdiction of New Jersey for taxation purposes, announced the U. S. supreme court today.

Frederick Lang must pay the penalty for the murder of his niece, Katie Hordon, in Middlesex county, New Jersey, with whom he was violently in love. The U. S. supreme Court today refused to interfere with the death sentence. Lang claimed the sentence was illegal because two members of the grand jury that indicted him were not qualified, being over sixty years of age.

The president this afternoon made public a correspondence with the governor of Mississippi regarding the tornado situation. The first is a message from the president to Governor Jackson extending sympathy, and proffering aid from the federal authorities. The second is the governor's reply, returning thanks for the kind expressions of the president and offers of aid.

MURDER.

One of the most atrocious murders that ever occurred in Anne Arundel county took place shortly after 10:15 p. m. yesterday, when Frank McIntire, 30 years old, of 12 Cypress street, Curtis Bay, is alleged to have shot Mrs. Annie Griffin, of the same address, six times, killing her instantly. He gave himself up a few minutes later to Patrolman Mewshaw, of the county force, and is alleged to have said that he killed the woman and would stand the consequences. Mrs. Griffin conducted a boarding house, and McIntire had been boarding with her five years. The only motive for the murder is said to have been jealousy. It is said that McIntre has admired Mrs. Griffin several years. It is said he thought he could win her affections, but that she repulsed him.

NO RECONCILIATION.

Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt is expected at Newport tonight. She has sent her servants and silver to Harborview, the home from which she was married, and she will reside there until she sails for Europe on June 21.

Mrs. Vanderbilt said to a personal friend:

"I know that there is talk of a reconciliation and separation instead of a divorce. It's all bosh. When I saw my husband with that woman I felt that I had done all that a woman could do. I am willing to take the consequences, and I will go to Newport to attend my niece's wedding and soon afterward will go abroad. Nothing more to say."

Mrs. Vanderbilt has the option on the Barstow farm of fifty acres and the Rogers farm of forty acres in Middletown, and the farmers are hoping that she will buy. They are near the Vanderbilt farms.

THIRTY-FOUR PEOPLE KILLED.

A terrible disaster occured early Saturday morning at Notre Dame de la Salette a little hamlet about eighteen miles from Buckingham, Canada, by which is thought, thirty-four people lost which their lives. The hamlet is situated at the foot of a hill, and about 2 o'clock in the morning, when most of the villagers were in their beds, a tremendous landslide occured. An enormous mass of earth and snow rushed down the mountain side and ingulfed several houses, with all their occupants. Owing to the locality of the village and the fact that it has neither railway, telegraph, nor telephone communication, details of the catastrophe are hard to get. Requests have been sent to Buckingham for twenty-five coffins, and these have already been sent.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington on Saturday to Thomas H. Ramsey, of Warrenton, and Matilda C. Klager; and to Chester R. Wood, and Olyve Myers, of Paeonian Springs.

Rev. William G. Eggleston, the oldest member of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, died Saturday night at his home, at Middletown, after a long illness. He was 94 years old.

Robbed of their clothing while bathing in the James river, above Richmond, yesterday, six young men, who had taken advantage of a warm Sabbath afternoon, were forced to await nightfall in order to get home as best they could.

The old depot which has been standing in Warrenton for years is fast being torn down and in its place will be erected by the Southern Railway a modern structure with all modern conveniences. This improvement on the part of the railroad company will be a source of genuine appreciation on the part of the traveling public at that point.

Reports from Washington that the four delegates from Virginia at Denver will be Martin, Daniel, Hay and Swanson, that Chairman Ellyson will not be retained as head of the State committee, and that other changes will be made are not taken seriously in Richmond. The impression there is that Martin, Daniel, Swanson, and R. Tate Irvine will be the delegates at large, and that Samuel L. Kelley, of Richmond, and Judge Samuel W. Williams, of Wythe, will be the electors at large. It is understood that Mr Ellyson is to succeed himself as chairman.

D. A. R. CONGRESS ADJOURNS.

The seventeenth Continental Congress of the D. A. R. ended Saturday afternoon in Washington. The session ended in perfect peace and harmony. Resolutions of thanks to the national officers, the presiding officers and press, and everybody connected with the congress were adopted during the closing hours of the session. All the national officers were loaded down with gifts of flowers, Mrs. McLean being presented with several large bunches of American Beauty roses.

The business before the congress was the adoption of a number of resolutions offered by the various members in regard to marking the Revolutionary graves and historic spots in various parts of the country. A resolution to have the Sons of the American Revolution make an annual report to the D. A. R. Congress was adopted, the view being to stimulate mutual interest in both organizations. Mrs. Park, of Georgia, spoke in regard to the work of the committee on patriotic education, and moved that the D. A. R. present each year a gold medal, valued at $100, to the midshipmen at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, who shall each year show the greatest efficiency on international law. The congress referred the matter to the committee on patriotic education with instructions to work out the plan and report.

Mrs. Wm. A. Smoot, of this city, who was chosen vice president general for Virginia, led the ticket in the election. The regents for Virginia are: Mrs. Samuel W. Jamison and Mrs. W. W. Harper.

TWO MEN SHOT.

Walter Bell, 25 years old, a tinner, employed in the Norfolk and Western shops at Roanoke, was shot to death and his companion, Hunt Lester, aged 20, was probably fatally wounded Saturday night in the southwest section of the city, when they were fired upon in the dark. Nora Sinclair, a young white woman, who was with the man who did the shooting, was arrested yesterday and is in jail. She declares she doesn't know the man's name. It is alleged that Bell and Lester addressed remarks to the Sinclair woman as she passed them in company with a man. The man resented the words said to have been spoken by Bell and Lester and, drawing his revolver, shot Bell through the stomach and Lester in the breast. Bell and Lester grappled with their assailant and wrenched his pistol from him. Bell then fell dead and Lester collapsed. Bell and Lester were members of well-to-do families. John Hamlett Phillips, aged 20 years, a carpenter, was arrested last night charged with the shooting. Phillips made a full confession to the detectives, saying he was forced to shoot Bell and Lester in self-defense. He declares he was being assaulted by both men. Phillips' face is badly beaten up.

DEATHS BY STORMS.

The totals of death, misery and ruin caused in four southern States by Friday's tornadoes have come to hand.

Briefly stated they are: Killed, about 350; injured, painfully or seriously, 1,200; homeless, several thousand.

Towns reporting serious wreckage, 46. Habitations and business houses practically complete ruins in these towns, about 2,500.

The above figures do not include the wreckage on plantations and farms, scores of which were struck and damaged. The number of dead will never be known accurately, for the reason that about 300 of them were negroes and they were buried in communities without careful records being made of their numbers.

While some of the first reports giving apparently reliable death lists have since proved unreliable, nevertheless, remote places which were late in reporting their dead have served to hold the total death list uniformly around 350.

WILL EXTEND HUMAN VISION.

M. Armengand, an engineer and scientist, of Paris, who has for many years been experimenting with the telephote, which is intended to extend the range of the human vision extraordinary distances, says he has so far perfected his apparatus that he can now foretell that the time is not far distant when a man sitting in Paris or London will be able to see what is going on in New York. He claims to have made remarkable progress in his experiments during the last three months. The apparatus is similar to that used for the telegraphic transmission of photographs. He utilizes the properties of selenium. His method was inspired by the development of the cinematograph.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Storms in the Southwest.

Memphis, Tenn., April 27.—Reports received today indicate that heavy damages, but probably small loss of life, resulted from yesterday's storm. The greatest loss was inflicted through northern Mississippi. In this city the wind blew sixty-one miles an hour, demolished chimneys, unroofed houses and broke many windows. The South Memphis water plant was damaged. Several negroes were injured.

New Orleans, April 27.—Conditions in the sections visited by the cyclone last week are rapidly assuming normal shape. The work of relief is progressing and the homeless and others in need of medical and other attention are having their wants rapidly filled. Latest returns place the number of dead at about 350, the seriously injured at 1,200 and the homeless at several thousand. Forty-six towns in all were visited by the storms and in these about 2,500 dwellings and business houses were destroyed. Relief funds have been started in several of the larger cities and the money received is being judiciously expended.

Mobile, Ala., April 27.—Reports slowly coming in today show that numerous additional deaths and great property damage have been done by the storm which again swept across parts of the previously devastated region last night. A tornado is reported to have hit Causeyville, Miss., and other sections have fared badly. Numerous calls for help are being received from all parts of the storm area.

No estimate is given of the casualties at Causeyville but they are said to be heavy. In Henry county, Miss., 19 additional deaths are reported. The tornado swooped down on the village, uprooted trees, blowing down buildings and causing general havoc. Every railroad running into Mobile reports its wires are down again in the new storm region and details are practically unobtainable. The tracks have been washed out on several of the lines, and it will be several days before repairs can be made. The Southern Railway suffered severely and it was announced today that traffic will be interrupted for several days.

Fort Deposit, Ala., was struck by another storm yesterday and today Gov. Comer declared martial law at the place for the protection of the residents. Great damage has been done there and relief is being hurried to the town. Many persons are homeless and there are scores of injured who have scant attention. Scores of the storm victims from points in Mississippi are being brought here for treatment. All tell remarkable stories of the storm's violence.

Fresh damage is reported from Dwight, Ala., where several houses were blown down last night. Mobile itself was visited by a heavy hail storm today that caused much damage. Crops are reported to have been ruined throughout this whole section by the hail.

One of the most unusual incidents was the injury last night by lightning of Frank Williams, a prominent resident of this city. He was in a ferris wheel at a resort when lightning struck near by and badly injured Williams.

Atlanta, Ga., April 27.—More than 3 miles of the Southern Railway tracks were washed away last night by the heavy rains and it will be two or three days before traffic can be resumed.

Helena, Ark., April 27.—Meagre reports were received today of a disastrous cyclone and hail storm just west of Helena, late yesterday. They indicate much property was destroyed. Telephone and telegraph wires are all down.

Raisuli Assassinated.

Paris, April 27.—Raisuli, the notorious Moroccan bandit, has been assassinated, according to a dispatch from Tangier today. Rumors of the killing were at first doubted, but the latest message confirms them absolutely and leaves little doubt that the outlaw has been slain. It is reported he fell a victim to hostile tribesmen who had awaited for some time an opportunity to end his life.

Raisuli has been for several years one of most conspicious figures in Morocco. He was once a petty chieftain unknown except by his own few followers, but he won fame throughout all Morocco while still comparatively young by his plucky resistance of the oppression of the governor appointed by the Sultan over the district in which he lived. The governor sent a strong force of troops against him and, after considerable skirmishing, Raisuli was captured, loaded with chains and thrown into prison to die. Under the discipline to which he was subjected he would undoubtedly have succumed soon. Escaping, however, with the aid of a few of his followers and taking to the desert, he began guerrila warfare against the sultan. At one time he captured a rich American named Perdicaris and his rich son-in-law. He fled with them to his fastnesses in the hills and sent a demand to Tangier for a heavy ransom, threatening to kill his prisoners if it were not paid. The United States goverment forced the sultan to meet his demands and from that time forth the bandit became a character of international reputation.

Children's Mass.

New York, April 27.—In every Catholic Church throughout greater New York today were gathered hundreds of children to attend the children's mass, the only special exercise of the second day's celebration of the centenary of the establishment of the New York diocese. The most important feature of the celebration was the arrival of Cardinal Gibbons from Baltimore. He will remain for the greater part of the celebration. Tomorrow he will assist in the great ecclesiastical event of the week, the pontifical mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral. Cardinal Logue, primate of All Ireland, will be the celebrant and Cardinal Gibbons will preach. Today Cardinal Logue is being shown the sights of the city, and tonight will be the guest at dinner of Countess Leary in her Fifth avenue home, together with Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States. The announcement today that Archbishop Falconi had brought Archbishop Farley, head of the New York diocese, a special message from Pope Pius X., led to a renewal of the rumors that Monsignor Farley is to be appointed a cardinal.

Whooping Cough.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family in cases of whooping cough, and want to tell you that it is the best medicine I have ever used.—W. F. Gaston, Posco, Ga. This remedy is safe and sure. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Pennsylvania R. R. Bond Issue.

New York, April 27.—After being many times over-subscribed subscriptions for the new Pennsylvania bond issue of $40,000,000 were closed promptly today. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., announced that the subscription is the greatest that firm has ever received, although it has handled some of the biggest bond issues in the history of the street. Wall street has not been as excited in years as it was today over the Pennsylvania bond issue. Although the bonds, which bear four per cent. interest are issued at 96, they were quoted on the curb on Saturday at 99 5 8 and today jumped to 99 7-8 while they were offered only at par, with the chances of a $50 margin on every $1,000 bond, regarded as a gilt edged security, the speculative element was quick to bid for the issue. From the activity displayed it was hard for financiers to remember the market has not yet recovered from the October panic and that business has been lagging. Hundreds of stock dealers risked having their "earnest money" tied up a month, even at a critical time, to get a share of the allotment.

Reports from London, where the issue was offered today are to the effect that the European allotment hadals been several times over subscribed.

Buried by Sliding Mountain.

Buckingham, Que., April 27.—Rescuers are today digging away tons of earth and rock in an endeavor to save those who may have escaped death when a sliding mountain wiped out half the little French hamlet of Notre Dame de Salette on the Lievre river. The total dead number about thirty and in several instances families, whose houses were in the path of the sliding mass of earth, were wipedout. Many are known to be buried in their houses under tons of debris, and it in the hope of rescuing those who may have survived that the rescuers are working with grim determination. The slide came without warning. Rains have been melting the snow and ice and this caused the earth to loosen, causing the mountain to slide. Before the inhabitants could escape twenty houses were buried. Of the killed those who were not victims of the slide were drowned in the swollen streams.

Mysterious Death.

New York, April 27.—With her brother and sister held as "material witnesses" the police of Williamsburg are working hard today to clear up the mystery surrounding the death of Miss Annie Duffy, 35, who was found unconscious in Stockton street yesterday and died at Williamsburg Hospital last night. Heart disease was at first thought to have caused death, but the discovery of numerous bruises on the body later caused the police to adopt a murder theory. Mrs. Annie Scatland has related to the police that she was awakened by screams coming from Miss Duffy's room early Sunday morning and had seen a man and woman carry Miss Duffy into the street. When Bernard Duffy and Mrs. Margaret Anderson, the dead woman's brother and sister, were found in her apartments they were arrested as witnesses.

The Collision in the Solent.

London, April 27.—Indications are that no one will be punished for Saturday's collision in the Solent between the American liner St. Paul and the British cruiser Gladiator, in which it is now believed 25 men lost their lives. The accident is believed to have been unavoidable and that everything possible was done on both sides immediately after the crash to make the loss of life as small as possible. Divers are again in the hold of the sunken cruiser today searching for the bodies of the lost men.

Southampton, April 27.—The liner St. Paul has been drydocked here for an examination concerning the extent of her injuries. Should it prove that she can be easily repaired she will resume service at once.

The Late Duc de Chaulnes.

Paris, April., 27.—Solemn requiem high mass was celebrated at the Church of St. Philippe over the body of the late Duc de Chaulnes today, after which the corpse was removed to the historic Chaulnes family home, Chateau Dampeirre. A service will be held at the chateau tomorrow and the remains will then be laid in the Dampierre mortuary chapel with those of the young nobleman's ancestors. The Duc de Luynes, De Chaulnes' cousin and head of his house, led the mourners. Nearly the whole of the French nobility followed the casket on its removal from the church.

Jumped from Six-story Building.

New York, April 27.—Leong Yumpo, 40 years old, today committed suicide by jumping from the roof of a six-story building on Eighth Avenue. He was a member of the firm of Tia & Co., art curio dealers, of Fifth avenue, with branch stores at Canton and Hong Kong. Poor business is believed to have caused the suicide. Yumpo was a Chinaman from Canton.

Killed by Cyclone.

Paris, April 27.—Tremendous loss of life and great property damage are reported in a cyclone which official dispatches say has swept the Comora archipelago in the Mozambique channel. There is no definite statement concerning the number of kilied which is said however, to amount to thousands.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Apr. 27.—The stock market opened with most leaders lower. At the end of ten minutes' trading most stocks had rallied from one-eighth to three-eighths from early low prices. The market continued strong and fairly active in the speculative issues, in which there was a presumption of a large short interest, and in the stocks favored by the professional speculative element on both sides of the market some of the industrials were marked up on manipulative orders.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, April 27.

SENATE.

The opening oratorical gun in the naval bill debate was heard an hour before noon today.

The opposing forces were closely marshalled, consisting of the administrationists, or the four-monster-battleship forces, under the leadership of Senators Beveridge and Piles, and the anti-administrationists, who stand for two battleships, and under the leadership of Chairman Hale of the naval committee, and Chairman Aldrich of the financial committee, two of the older Senators and leaders in many a notable conflict.

Senator Stone, of Missouri, opened today's engagement with a speech against the four battleship proposition. He was followed by Senator Sutherland, in favor of four ships.

The naval debate in the Senate this afternoon, was listened to by a distinguished looking Japanese, in the diplomatic gallery. He bore a card of admission signed by Secretary of State Root. He declined to give his name to correspondents who sought it. Two members of the Russian embassy staff also followed the debate.

Inquiries to his identify finally became so embarrassing to the Japanese that he left the gallery.

HOUSE.

The House today passed a bill granting to the city of Seattle certain privileges through the United States military reservation there.

The democratic filibuster was in strong evidence in the House today. A resolution appropriating money to defray expenses for the wood pulp investigating committee, precipitated the matter. Minority leader Williams demanded suspension of the rules and immediate consideration of the bill to remove the wood pulp tariff, inserting in the record several editorials.

Denunciation of the minority tactics was presented by Mr. Mann. The resolution was adopted with but one opposing vote.

The Imperial Bank of Germany reduced its discount rate today from 5 1-2 to 5 per cent. It reduced it from 6 per cent. March 1.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

LETTER TO BURKE & HERBERT

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: The maker, who puts 2 or 3 lbs of whiting barytes or clay in a gallon of paint, saves $1.50 or $2 25 for himself and makes you overpay $25 on a $50 job.

It takes 15 gallons of his weak paint—it is weak from that adulteration and probably weak from benzine or water besides—it takes 15 gallons of that poor stuff to cover a 10-gallon job Devoe; it may take 20. Here's a case:

Judge I D Fairchild owns two houses, exactly alike, in Lufkin, Texas. J. M. Torrence painted both houses, one Devoe, 15½ gallons; the other with another paint sold at same price; 25 gallons. That 25 gallon paint is weak and 15 per cent. whiting; that's why it took 9½ gallons more.

It costs $2 to $4 a gallons to paint any paint whether good or not. Adds this to the price, and the cost of your job is $5 a gallon: $75 or $100 for trash; Devoe $50.

Paint that takes more gallons may or may not be adulterated; there are 8 pure paints and 200 adulterated; Devoe is the strongest of all; it takes least gallons, makes the least bill, and wears longest, of all.

You can over pay from 10 to 120 per cent; and the more you pay, the worse your job. In paint, the rule is least gallons, least cost, longest wear.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & Co.

P. S.—E. S. Leadbeater & Sons sell our paint. 91

Weather Probabilities.

For this section showers and thunderstorms and much cooler tonight. Tuesday fair; colder; brisk southwest to west winds.

THE CHURCHES.

Yesterday being bright and warm many people attended the churches. In many of them the Easter music of the previous Sunday was repeated and greatly enjoyed. At Christ Church Rev. Dr. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, preached in the morning and Mr. Bowie, a student of that institution, at night. At St. Paul's Church in the morning Bishop Gibson, of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, preached an able sermon and confirmed a class of 17. The bishop at night also preached and confirmed a class of four at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd on south Fairfax street. Rev. Dr. Fisher preached his farewell sermon at the Baptist Church in the morning, where a very large congregation, including many of other denominations, gathered to hear him and to bid him goodbye. At Grace Church at night Rev. Edgar Carpenter preached an interesting and instructive sermon before the Odd Fellows of this city, who celebrated the 89th anniversary of the institution of that order. Regular services were held in all the other churches.

At the early mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church in the morning members of the various male Catholic organizations in the church attended Holy Communion in a body.

FAREWELL SERMON.

Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the First Baptist Church, preached his farewell sermon at that church yesterday morning. The attendance was unusually large. Dr. Fisher took for his text, "Be ye of one mind," and urged the congregation to give his successor, whoever he may be, their unanimous support in his ministry. Four persons were baptized at the night services. Rev. Dr. Fisher will leave Wednesday for Concord Station, Campbell county where he will remain temporarily. Dr. Fisher took charge of the church on May 1, 1905. There was at that time a membership of 584. Since that time Dr. Fisher has received into the church by baptism 190 persons, by letter 26, and by experience and reinstatement 16, making a total of 242 additions. The weekly prayer meeting will be held this week on tomorrow (Tuesday) night at 7:30 o'clock, instead of Wednesday, as heretofore. At that time there will be baptisms.

DEATH OF A. J. HUDSON.

Mr. Andrew J. Hudson, whose critical illness had been mentioned in the Gazette, died at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, after a prolonged illness. He went to that institution two weeks ago to undergo an operation. Mr. Hudson was about seventy-four years of age. He came to this city from Lewisburg, W. Va., about a quarter of a century ago. He was a saddler by occupation. Besides his widow, he leaves the following children: Mrs. George E. Warfield and Mrs. R. T. Thomas, of this city; James G. Hudson, of Washington; Mrs. Lipps, of Lewisburg, W. Va. The remains will be brought to his home, 919 King street, and prepared for burial. Mr. Hudson was a quiet and esteemed citizen, and during his residence in Alexandria made many acquaintances and friends.

FINED TWENTY DOLLARS.

George Rector, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Ferguson on a charge preferred by two young ladies. According to the statement made by the latter, they were walking in the vicinity of the Southern Railway depot yesterday afternoon when the negro purposely attracted their attention by his gross conduct. After Rector had been conducted to the station house the young women appeared and positively identified the prisoner as the guilty party. They also said it was the second time the negro had acted in an improper manner while they were passing him. Rector was brought before the Police Court this morning when Justice Caton fined him $20.

ODD FELLOWS' ANNIVERSARY.

Potomac Lodge, No. 38, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, last night celebrated the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States by attending special services at Grace Church. The members of Sarepta Lodge, No. 46, also attended the services, which were conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter. A large congregation was present and the services were interesting and instructive throughout. This is the second time in recent years that the Odd Fellows of Alexandria have held anniversary exercises by attending Grace Church. On the previous occasion Rev. Mr. Carpenter delivered an appropriate sermon which was greatly enjoyed, as was that last night.

YESTERDAY.

Yesterday was an ideal April Sunday, bright and warm, indeed a little too warm for some, but a lovely day withall; just such a day as makes one feel like living longer and living in the open. Many people were on the streets, many others enjoyed walking in the surrounding country, while many more spent the day on the river, or on the river banks. The temperature was that of summer time; the sun was obscured at no time, and the trees and shrubbery being in early leaf lent additional charm to the already perfect spring Sunday

AQUEDUCT NOTES.

On Saturday last, at Aqueduct Race Course, N. Y., "The Glendale Steeplechase" was won by Rocket with Jim McGill third, both horses being owned by Hampton Stable. On the Wednesday previous, of the same week, these horses won the Steeplechase, at the same place, running respectively first and second.

NEARING ITS CLOSE.

The fishing season of 1908 has almost run its course. It is said that the herring season at Fishtown will probably end this week. Receipts are slow and prices about the same as last week.

Money can be saved by buying your Shoes at Marshall's, 422 King street.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smoot have returned from a delightful visit to Atlantic City.

The engagement is announced of Mr. J. David Lannon, formerly of this city, but now of New York, and Miss Frances Janeway, daughter of Dr Janeway, of New York.

Miss Charlotte Blackburn is the guest of Mrs. Marshall Milton, of Baltimore.

Miss Janet Childs, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Margaret Micou, on Seminary Hill.

Rev. Fathers Cutler and Kelly have returned from a trip taken to Boston which they made by water.

Mrs. Louis S. Green has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. David Grillbortzer have returned from their bridal trip to Atlantic City.

Miss Louise Nowlin, of Lynchburg, is visiting friends in Alexandria.

Miss Tippitt, of Alexandria, was among the week-end guests of Mrs Herman Keister, of Blacksburg, going from there to the Natural Bridge.

Mrs. M. W. O'Brien and her sister, Miss Florence J. Evans, returned on Saturday last from New York city, where they went to visit friends and spend the holidays.

W. N. Dunford, an employee at the Potomac railroad yards, became seriously ill early last night, and was conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital. Mr. Dunford is a native of Richmond.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Jean Wilson, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Henry Simpson, charged with vagrancy, was fined $5.

George Rector, colored, charged with improper conduct, was fined $20.

William Howard, charged with being drunk in the street, was dismissed with a warning.

Joseph Davis and Lucy Shepherd, both colored, charged with improper conduct, were each fined $5.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT.

The roadway to all the cemeteries south of the road leading to the National Cemetery has been materially improved. The road has been resurfaced and rolled, and a sidewalk of cinders constructed. Heretofore parts of the roadway formed a quagmire at times. The improved conditions were greatly admired yesterday by the many people who visited the cemeteries. The cost of the improvement was borne by Mr. Edward L. Daingerfield.

WILL STOP ON KING STREET.

Mr. O. P. Angelo, secretary of the commuters' association, recently waited upon the electric railway officials and requested that during rainy weather northbound trains stop on King street instead of Columbus. The officials assured Mr. Angelo that in future, during inclement weather, the trains would stop on King street.

BABY HURT.

While a lady was wheeling her baby on south Pitt street, near Prince, on Saturday night, the carriage, coming in contact with a hole in the pavement, capsized, throwing the occupant to the ground, badly cutting the little one's head. There are two dangerous places on this square.

BOAT CAPSIZED.

A sail boat containing a number of Washingtonians capsized near Notley Hall yesterday afternoon. They were rescued by a resident of Prince George's county, Md., who went to their assistance. The water is said to be about 40 feet deep where the accident occurred.

There is nothing better than Kodol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas and nervous headache. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The warm weather of the past few days has brought out a number of straw hats.

The sidewalk on the west side of Pitt street, between King and Prince, is in a dangerous condition.

The annual meeting of the Locke Coal Company was held in this city today for the election of directors.

A coop containing four chickens, belonging to Mr. C. L. Cole, was stolen from the markethouse Saturday night.

The Capital City Telephone line between this city and the County Court has been out of service for the past few days.

The brick sidewalk from Payne street to the National Cemetery has been relaid, but the roadway has not been improved.

The Belle Haven Amusement Company which had been exhibiting moving pictures on north Fairfax street, has close its doors.

Mr. C. M. Beale, a well-known merchant at Beale's wharf, on the Potomac, died a few days ago. He was well known in this city.

A number of colored people were baptized in the cove off Battery Rogers, yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was witnessed by a large throng of white and colored persons.

It is understood that Mr. Wm. Posey, charged with failing to account for $158.62 belonging to Messrs. Charles King & Son Co., has made full restitution and the matter is at an end.

The address of Dr. Charles E. Guthrie yesterday afternoon at the Young People's building of the M. E. Church South on the subject, "The Four Faces," was interesting and enjoyed by all present.

A civil service examination was held at the postoffice building this morning for stenography and typewriting. Three females took the examination, which was conducted by Mr. N. L. Williamson.

The cases of W. H. Cumpton and Sarah Boyer against the Adams Express Company; suits to recover damages for loss of packages, set for a hearing in the Corporation Court tomorrow have been continued.

The address by the Hon. John Barrett on "Strange Experiences in Strange Lands" that was to have been given tonight has been postponed by Mr. Barrett until next month when due notice of the lecture will be given.

The remains of Conny Gray, colored, a member of Company H, Twenty-fifth United States Infantry, who died in the Philippines last September, reached here yesterday afternoon. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon.

The tableaux and illustrated songs given by the Children of the American Revolution, Saturday evening, in Miss Smoot's studio, on Prince street, was a very successful affair. The children who took part acquitted themselves most creditably. Among those worthy of special mention were Master Eliphalet Andrews, as George Washington crossing the Delaware; Miss Mary Lord Andrews, as Dolly Madison, and Miss Collins Jones as a Dutch girl. The proceeds are to be used for patriotic work.

Behind the Screen.

At a particularly dainty little restaurant a lady with a sense of humor chooses the seat nearest the serving room, from which vantage point she notes and records, somewhat after the manner of Miss Beatrice Herford, the squabbles and comments of the dainty waitresses. Here are some of her curious transcripts from reality:

"I told you six soups, not desserts—the beginning of the meal, not the finish! Can't you hear straight?"

"Here, Birdie, take back this coffee! It's so cold it gave the woman malaria!"

"Great Scott! This lettuce isn't fit for a horse! I'd sooner eat grass!"

"Oh, gee! Hurry up! It's for an old maid, and her temper's worse'n mine!"

"Say, you're the limit! I asked for fat meat, and you've given me a joint—nothin' but bone! Wake up!"

Behind a screen, my correspondent tells me, they often imitate certain of the guests—mimicking their walk, even their table manners. And as for the remarks she overhears, she marvels less at their content than at the way they are uttered. "Such voices!" And so she expresses astonishment that at table, while waiting on the people, "these young women are ever quiet and demure and patient—soft tones and a cheery but dignified manner."—Boston Transcript.

Precious Stones and "Paste."

Glass, or "paste," as it is called, is made which cannot when new be distinguished from diamonds by any one but an expert armed with the necessary tests.

And the same is true as to paste imitations of all precious stones excepting the emerald (whose beautiful green tint cannot be exactly obtained), the cat's eye, which has a peculiar fibrous structure, and the opal. The real value and quality of precious stones as compared with glass depend on their durability, their hardness, their resistance to scratching and "dulling" of face and edge.

Even our Anglo-Saxon ancestors made gems of glass and paste. It is only in modern times that the art of making artificial "precious stones" has reached a degree of perfection which, so far as decorative purposes are concerned, leaves the natural stones no claim to superiority.—London Telegraph.

Official Precedence.

The Chicago Inter Ocean tells of the daughter of a well known representative who on her tenth birthday had a party, and one of the guests was the daughter of a senator. The birthday cake shone gloriously with ten candles.

A few weeks later the senator's daughter reached her eighth milestone, and a party was in order. Just before the guests arrived the small celebrant betook herself to the dining room to take a look at the festal board. High on its pedestal of crystal stood the birthday cake, and circling its snowy circumference were eight tiny candles, one for each year.

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven—eight!" ejaculated the small hostess. "Mamma, mamma, please come here quick. They've only put eight candles on my birthday cake, and my father's a senator! Now, Mary had ten candles on her birthday cake, and she's only the daughter of a congressman."

Quick Wit.

Napoleon was pacing up and down one day before his quarters, planning probably some new scheme of conquest. He dropped his glove, and a common soldier happening along picked it up and returned it to him.

"Thank you, captain," said the emperor absentmindedly, not thinking that the man was only a private.

"Of which company, sire?" put in the soldier promptly, taking Napoleon at his word.

"Come to me tonight and you shall receive your commission," said the great commander.

He knew that that common soldier had the presence of mind necessary to make a good officer.

Singing and Gargling.

Singers do not give away their secrets of the voice. I know, however, that some of the tenors and prima donnas use an astringent gargle whenever their vocal cords become so relaxed that very high notes are difficult to emit. One famous little tenor used cold tea that had drawn a long time. Such a gargle, though, does not improve the quality of the voice, even if it does raise the pitch temporarily.

The popular gargle among opera artists is the solvent. It loosens crusts which form in the throat and nasal cavities and removes mucous which cannot be got rid of by coughing and hawking. A common wash is twelve grains of chlorate of potash to a wineglassful of warm water. Many singers and orators in order to render their voices clear and mellow use a gargle containing one teaspoonful of common salt and one of baking soda in a tumblerful of water. These gargles are improved by further adding some aromatic substances to stimulate the mucous membrane with which they come in contact.—New York Press.

Needles and Pins.

The Lancet tells of a peculiar case in a London hospital. The patient, a healthy Scotch girl, aged twenty years, was in the habit of putting pins in her mouth and sometimes had been known to fall asleep without removing them. She was admitted to the hospital, having swallowed five pins accidentally while fixing clothes, and by the help of emetics she was relieved of them. Returning home, she began regularly to vomit pins and got rid of twenty-three in the course of a month. She then began to produce needles, and in a fortnight thirteen came out from the following situations: The left nostril, the origin of the sternomastoid behind the left ear and a spot on the front of the right forearm. At the same time she continued vomiting pins until seventy-five had appeared. The needles were blackened and slightly eroded, and two of them were threaded with about three inches of thread.

He Emptied His Pockets.

The Comte de Corbieres, minister of the interior to Louis XVIII., while working in the king's cabinet one day became absorbed in his work and so far forgot himself as to place his snuffbox on the king's desk after taking snuff. The king observed this unheard of familiarity from the corner of his eye, but said nothing. Presently the minister whipped out his pocket handkerchief and placed it beside the snuffbox.

"M. de Corbieres," remarked the king at last, "you appear to be emptying your pockets."

"Perhaps so, sire," was the calm response, "but that is much better than filling them."

The king smiled at the clever hit at the corruption of some of the minister's predecessors. Corbieres was noted for his scrupulous integrity.

Neat Little Game.

After tea she brought over his pipe and his slippers.

"John," she whispered tenderly, "do you know my conscience has been hurting me and I have formed a little conscience fund."

"Conscience fund?" asked the big husband in surprise.

"Yes, dear. You see, I have been borrowing a few dollars out of your vest pockets every night for a week, and here is the entire sum."

"Well! Well! You are an honest little woman."

"And, John?"

"Well, my dear?"

"Now—now that I have been so honest, would—would you mind giving me the 'conscience fund' to buy a pretty hat I saw in a window today?"—Boston Post.

Could See Too Much.

A fine, robust soldier, after serving his country faithfully for some time, became greatly reduced in weight, owing to exposure and scanty rations, until he was so weak he could hardly stand. Consequently he got leave of absence to go home and recuperate. He arrived at his home station looking very badly. Just as he stepped off the boat one of his old friends rushed up to him and said, "Well, well, Pat, I see you're back from the front."

Pat looked worried and replied, "Begorra, I knew I was getting thin, but I nivver thought you could see that much!"—London Tit-Bits.

Noah and Genoa.

In his "Rambling Recollections" Sir Henry Drummond Wolff tells the following story of Bulwer Lytton:

"A lady one day remarked to the famous novelist and politician how odd it was that a dove (derived from the word colombe) should have been sent to find the Old World and that Columbus (Colombe) should have found the new. Sir Edward replied:

"'Yes, and the one came from Noah, the other from Genoa.'"

True Enough.
